Required Competitions

- Poise and Appearance in eveningwear: This is a formal event for contestants and escorts. Your dad, granddad, uncle or brother may escort you if he/she follows the escort attire rules: suit with dress shirt and tie, military uniform or a conventional tux. Absolutely no unstructured coats, baggy pants, bomber jackets or pegged legs!
- Personal Introduction in Interview Outfit: Each contestant will introduce herself to the panel of judges before the personal interview, giving her name, hometown and one thing she wants the judges to know about her.
- Personal Interview: Each contestant is interviewed by a panel of judges who will score poise, personality, appearance and self confidence.

Optional Competitions

A separate panel of judges will select optional competition winners. Optional competitions are not mandatory and will not affect the scoring for the Queen competition. You may choose to compete in as many, or as few, of these categories as you like. The free optional competitions are:
